

PLANETARY BLUES BAND - ONCE UPON A TIME IN THE SOUTH LOOP

Details Category: NEW RELEASE RACK ROW 3 Written by Danny

Planetary Blues Band enters their most recent release, Once Upon A Time In the South Loop, with a Blind Lemon Jefferson tune, "See That My Grave is Kept Clean". A second line drumming style opens the track and as it spreads out, jam band grooves and the flash of riffs travel over a percussive ground. Planetary Blues Band maintain a shifting style landscape throughout Once Upon A Time In the South Loop. Blues is the overriding default in the music but touches of twang, bending strings, folk strums, rock and jazz influence the tunes.

Planetary Blues Band taps tunes from Rev. Robert Wilkins ("That's No Way to get Along") and Memphis Minnie ("Crazy Cryin' Blues") with the remaining material penned by group member Michael Schaefer-Murray. "Sacred and Profane Blues" rumbles with a Texas blues stomp, "Blues Resurrection" sidles down a sunny street with an easy walking groove and "The Shillelagh" wraps the albums ten tunes up with an instrumental exit.
